1. Students who are participating in the Cheerleading for sports day must remind their parents to complete the consent form for them to stay back after schooling hours. By this Fri when the Sports House teachers still do not receive the students' written consent from parents, these students will not be allowed to participate in the cheerleading event on the Sports day.

The following students' parents have given consent for participating in the cheerleading event and practice. Thank you for the cooperation from these students.

8. Last but not least, we have reminders of some of the school rules:

- (i) Students are reminded that they must not be late for school as it is considered a misconduct. Please refer to your time tables for more accurate timing.
- (ii) Insubordination - students are reminded that being rude to teachers, not listening to teachers during class, disturbing the class and lessons as well as disturbing other students is considered insubordination and may be subjected to action taken.

End of Assembly with HONSBRIDGE SCHOOL SONG

School Song

Honsbridge Academy,
Shining on our hearts,
Building bridges,
exceeding expectation
Commitment, Dedication
We strive for excellence
